The Law of Landlord and Tenant.

A case has been decided in the Court of Common Pleas for Richland County which involves a question of very grave mportance to handlords. A man named Mooney rented a house to one Edwards, upon the express condition, in writing, that he was to surrender the premises upon failure to pay the monthly rent, Edwards did fail to make a payment when it became due. Upon this Mooney complained to a trial justice, who after To-day the game of base ball between the usual ten days' notice, ejected the action for damages for unlawful ejectment, and upon the hearing Judge Carpenter decided that the trial justice had no jurisdiction, and that Mooney was liable in damages. The jury found a verdict of $200 in favor of Edwards. Under this decision trial justices have no jurisdiction to oust tenants for non-payment of rents, and and landlords have no remedy against that class of tenants, except by an action in the Circuit Court for possession of real property. This At the recent Tax sales 21,399 acres being an action in which judgment can volved will operate greatly to the injury of the land-owners.
